The Persatuan Alumni AOTS Malaysia (PAAM) was formed in 1985 to cater for over 6,000 Malaysians who underwent technical training in Japan. It is also aims at developing mutual cooperation among its members, maintaining contact with AOTS in carrying out various joint activities such as technical and management courses.

PAAM also organizes seminars, tea talks and Japanese language courses.

The Association for Overseas Technical Scholarship (AOTS), was established in 1959 with the support of the Japanese Ministry of Economy, Trade & Industry (METI). Its main purpose is to promote technical cooperation for the industrialization and development of developing countries. To date, AOTS has trained over 115,000 trainees from 150 countries and regions, besides organizing training programs in developing countries. Involving about 144,000 participants, the activities are financed by Japanese government subsidiaries, contribution from leading Japanese companies and other sources.
